I wrote on 28th Inst requesting a Passport for Robert C. Baker accomp^d by 2 Sisters.

I recd in answer a Passport for Mr Baker only. -
No reason accomp^d the refusal to issue the Passport as desired.

Mr Baker called this Morning & was exceedingly mortfied at my want of success, stating that he could from other Notaries, have easily obtained what he applied for.

If anything is wrong in this matter, I trust a reply may shew where it is. I cannot conceive of any Notary obtaining more from the Department than I properly ask for.

In the meantime I think it proper to state what Mr Baker said as to the Power to obtain Passports by other

Mr Baker applies through another the Passport I obtained was of no

Dear Sir

In the multiplicity of your duties I am sorry to trouble you, but presuming upon our slight connexion and acquaintance I take the liberty of asking a favor of you —

I expect to sail next Saturday for Liverpool en route for Constantinople and shall need a passport. If I should send to the department I suppose I should have to wait some time for an answer. Whereas if you will favor me with your endorsement to my application I suppose the thing could be procured at once.

I enclose an old passport and a description of my person.

I would like to have the ^{old} passport returned. I suppose no affidavit is necessary when I present my former passport.

Honble Wm. Hunter,
Washington,

Dear Sir;

Permit me to thank you for your attention to my request in handing my letter to the President.

Altho' no favorable answer has been received I am nevertheless equally obliged to you, I am satisfied if the President could be informed of the unwholesome manner in which the properties of a comparatively few persons is virtually confiscated "without benefit of law" by "men
"clothed with a little brief authority," he would at once apply the remedy. Such matters if Braver authorities engage his attention, and official misrule has its way. I have been separated from my family for the last six years, nearly.

Since the termination of active hostilities I have hoped in this country in the hopes of getting back the remnant of property which has escaped
"the fiery ordeal of war."

Mrs. Jones' health does not admit of her making the voyage from Europe. I am therefore compelled to cross the Atlantic, leaving my property in the hands of British Quarter-masters and Commissaries.

Now I ask the favor of you to send me a Passport by return Mail, directed to this Hotel, as I propose embarking on the
"Perire" on Saturday next.

I remain

Sr. Sir,

Very respectfully
